The routine and rhythm of work, the work tasks, the socializing associated with .... all these become part of the pattern of normalization. Leaving the house each morning, boarding the bus, punching in, coffee break, arguing with friends or foes, lunch, back to work, and then returning home .... another day passed and another dollar earned are parts of the work process needed to give and sustain a person's image of him/herself as normal.

INTRODUCTION

This booklet is for young people with handicaps who are getting ready to graduate from high school and begin working and living in the adult world. The booklet is also for parents and teachers of these young people. Specific information is included about jobs and adult living for individuals with cultural differences.

Adult vocational and independent living programs are very complicated. During the public school years, students and their parents are involved with the special education service delivery system only. However, when they graduate, these young people may be involved with several agencies. They may receive services from vocational rehabilitation, the social security administration, the developmental disabilities department, community college programs, transit companies, independent living centers, and other agencies in order to work, live, and play in the adult world.

The rules and regulations of each adult agency differ from one another. It is difficult for students with handicaps and their families to understand the workings of adult agencies and, thus, reap the benefits of the services. It is even more difficult for those with cultural differences. It is important that students and their families know about adult agencies, know how to get the many services that they provide, and also know how to get help in doing this. It is even more important that students and their families know these things before the student graduates from high school.

The purpose of this booklet is to provide descriptions of adult vocational and adult living options which currently exist for youth with handicaps. Certain things must be done, however, before a person can work and function in the adult world. A person must have his/her official birth certificate, must get a social security card, must know how to use public transportation, etc. Thus, this booklet also contains step-by-step instructions for completing many of these preliminary, essential tasks of adult living.

The following pages contain basic information and specific steps for doing what is required to work and live in the adult world. The information is intended for students themselves, and also for their parents and/or guardians. Efforts have been made to use simple, common sense language so that individuals with cultural and language differences can easily understand the information.*

(* This booklet will soon be available in Spanish.)

The booklet is also intended for teachers and other professionals who play critical roles in helping students and their families prepare for the transition from school to work and adult life. The specific sections of this booklet include:

- * How to obtain a birth certificate;
- * How to apply for a social security card;
- * How to obtain a California ID card;
- * How to obtain a work permit;
- * How to obtain vocational programs in the school setting;
- * How to include an Individualized Transition Plan (ITP) in the IEP;
- * How to obtain a bus pass;
- * How to know bus schedules and bus routes;
- * How to obtain a driver's license;
- * How to get help from adult agencies;
- * How to get a job;
- * How to keep a job; and
- * How to obtain help if the student is not English speaking.

It is hoped that this booklet will help students and their parents, especially those from different cultural groups, become more informed about adult programs and general adult living. The program descriptions and tasks included are by no means all inclusive, but they can be viewed as a starting point for transition planning and adult living. It is also hoped that this booklet will help youth, parents, and professionals become more aware of the fact that a smooth transition from school to adulthood depends upon knowing what to do, when to do it, how to do it, and from whom to seek assistance.

HOW TO OBTAIN A VOCATIONAL PROGRAM AT SCHOOL

GETTING STARTED AT SCHOOL

1. There are many programs at school to help students learn about getting jobs and living independently.
2. To find out about these programs, contact the teacher or vocational counselor at the school. Some schools have a special counselor for students who are enrolled in special education classes. If this is the case, talk to this person first.
3. In most vocational programs, the student will receive counseling and vocational testing to explore job interests and job skills.
4. The student and counselor will jointly decide upon the best vocational program. This may include:
  - * Occupational Education Classes: These are classes that can be taken for high school credit. The student will learn how to apply for a job, how to interview for a job, how to get a job, and how to keep a job. In some classes, the student will have a real job with pay. A job coach will be available for help on the job.

GETTING STARTED AT SCHOOL (Continued)

- * ROP classes: A Regional Occupational Program (ROP) class can also be taken for credit. There are many ROP classes. Each class offers training in specific job skills such as office work, landscaping, food service, and others. Job skills are often taught in a real setting, but without pay. Some ROP classes are specifically designed for students in special education.
- * On-campus job placement: This may include helping in the cafeteria, doing custodial work, or helping the school secretaries. These activities may be part of the ROP class.
- * Community-based job training: Many private sector employers are willing to provide job training and paid employment for students. Real jobs in the community are usually a part of the school's vocational program. Ask your teacher about community-based training programs.
- * Workability: In this program, the student is placed in a community-based training site for three months. The student receives hourly wages and Worker's Compensation benefits which are paid by the state.
- * Project GOLD: This is a cooperative program sponsored by the public schools, vocational rehabilitation, and community colleges. The purpose of Project GOLD is to help special education students, ages 18-25, obtain jobs. The student must qualify as a client of the Department of Rehabilitation. The student may be advised to attend a job lab. The student is placed in a paid job and receives follow-up assistance for ninety days.

- * Work Experience class: If a student is working 20 hours per week, he/she can earn high school credit. The student is required to attend a weekly Work Experience class. Here the student discusses what is going on at work and can get any necessary help from school personnel if problems arise.
  - * Summer youth employment programs: Some schools have special programs to assist students in obtaining summer jobs. One example of such a program is REGY, whereby the school and the employer share the costs of employment.
  - * Supported Employment programs: Many schools have Supported Employment programs which provide support for helping students get jobs or job training in the community. Help may include job skills training, transportation, employer contacts, counseling for students and parents, referral to adult agencies, job coach support, and others. Ask a special education teacher about these programs.
5. Any of the programs described above can be included in the student's IEP as part of his/her educational and vocational goals if appropriate for the student.
  6. Be sure to ask your teacher, principal, counselor, or any other person at school about these programs. Keep asking until all questions are answered!.

HOW TO INCLUDE AN INDIVIDUALIZED TRANSITION PLAN IN THE IEP

INCLUDING A PLAN FOR ADULTHOOD IN THE IEP

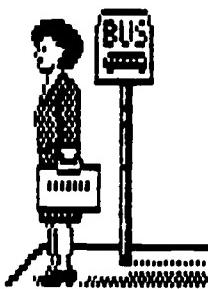

1. Each student enrolled in special education has a right to have an Individualized Transition Plan (ITP) developed and added to the current IEP.
2. The ITP is for the purpose of making plans for the student after he/she graduates from high school.
3. The ITP should contain plans for the following:
  - a. Employment and Education: A place to work and train after graduation.
  - b. Living Arrangements: A place to live.
  - c. Community Recreation and Leisure Activities: Things to do for fun.
  - d. Personal Management: Taking care of oneself and personal belongings.
  - e. Health and Safety: Staying healthy and knowing safety rules.
  - f. Financial and Income: How to budget and manage money matters.

INCLUDING A PLAN FOR ADULTHOOD IN THE IEP (Cont.)

- g. Family and Social Relationships: Doing things with friends and relatives.
  - h. Advocacy, Legal and Long-term Support: How to get help with any of the above.
4. The parent, teacher, counselor, or anyone else at school can schedule a time for the ITP to be developed and added to the student's IEP. Be sure to ask for an ITP to be developed and added to the student's current IEP.

HOW TO GET A BUS PASS

GETTING A BUS PASS

1. Students with handicaps can get a bus pass which allows them to take any city bus or trolley in the local area.
2. Students with handicaps can get a bus pass for $10.00 per month. (People who are not handicapped have to pay $40.00 per month).
3. The student must go to the Transit Authority office in person to get a bus ID card and a bus pass.
4. The address and phone number for the Transit Authority is found in the government listings in the front of the telephone directory.
5. The student must have a statement of proof of residency such as a state ID card, or the school can supply such a statement.
6. The student must have a statement of disability. This can be obtained from an adult agency counselor or a mobility instructor.

GETTING A BUS PASS (Continued)

7. The student will be asked to fill out a bus ID application form. This form is available in English and Spanish. The fee for a bus ID card is $2.50.
8. The student's photo will be taken and will appear on the bus ID card. The ID card will also have a large "H" for "handicapped". This qualifies the student for the $10.00 per month bus pass.
9. Once the student has a bus ID card, he/she can purchase a $10.00 monthly bus pass at any time.
10. The bus ID card is issued only once.
11. The $10.00 monthly bus pass must be purchased every month. It is half price after the 15th of each month.

HOW TO KNOW THE BUS SCHEDULES & BUS ROUTES

KNOWING BUS SCHEDULES & BUS ROUTES

1. Bus and trolley schedules are free at many main bus stops and also at the Transit Authority main office.
2. A student can call the Transit Authority to get bus route information over the phone. When calling, the student should be ready to:
  - * Have a pen and paper available to write down the schedule information.
  - * State the names of the cross streets of his/her starting place;
  - * State his/her destination; and,
  - * State the time of day that he/she wants to travel.
3. If the student receives services from the Department of Rehabilitation or Regional Center, he/she may be eligible for mobility training.
4. When a student takes mobility training, a mobility instructor will individually teach the student all necessary bus or trolley routes.

KNOWING BUS SCHEDULES & BUS ROUTES (Continued)

5. The mobility instructor will actually travel with the student to and from work, including all transfer stops, until the student is able to ride the bus alone.
6. The mobility instructor will also help the student fill out a bus route card to carry with him/her at all times.
7. Be sure to ask a teacher, caseworker, and/or counselor about mobility training.

HOW TO GET A DRIVER'S LICENSE

GETTING A DRIVER'S LICENSE

1. Many students with handicaps are able to get a driver's license.
2. A driver's license is obtained from the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). The address and phone number for the DMV can be found in the government listings in the front of the telephone directory.
3. The student must go to the DMV in person, but no appointment is necessary.
4. The student should say if special help or accommodations are needed to take the driver's tests.
5. If the student speaks a language other than English, the DMV person needs to know what language that is.
6. If the student has a learning disability or language difference, he/she needs to ask to take the written test orally.
7. If the student takes the test orally, he/she will be shown how to work an audio cassette player and head phones to take the driver's test.
8. Questions on the driver's test are primarily TRUE and FALSE. The student will be asked to write + (for true), or o (for false).

GETTING A DRIVER'S LICENSE (Continued)

9. All instructions are given on the audio tape.
All instructions are repeated.
10. After completing the test, the test will be scored. If the student passes the oral test, a road test will be given to demonstrate driving skills.
11. The student will be given an eye examination and also be fingerprinted.
12. The student will have his/her photo taken which will appear on the driver's license.
13. If all tests are passed, the student will be issued a valid driver's license.
14. The student can get a driver's permit if he/she passes the written test. This allows the student to drive a car when accompanied by a licensed driver.
15. The student will have to pay a fee of about $10.00 for his/her driver's license.
16. The DMV requires that the driver's license be renewed periodically.

HOW TO GET HELP FROM ADULT AGENCIES

3. All of these agencies plan with the student for adult living on an individual basis and ask for input from the family.
4. It is very important that the student contact these agencies at least two years before he/she graduates from high school.
5. Ask the teacher, counselor, principal, or anyone else at school which agency the student should contact for help with adult needs.
6. Examples of adult agencies which can help students get jobs and live independently include:

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION
REGIONAL CENTER
COMMUNITY COLLEGES

4. The address and phone number for the local Social Security office is found in the government listings in the front of the telephone directory.
5. When the Social Security office is contacted, questions about the student's disability will be asked to determine if the student might be eligible for SSI.
6. If the student appears eligible, forms will be mailed to be completed and returned to the Social Security office. Also, two telephone interviews will be scheduled.
7. The student will probably need help filling out the SSI forms as they are very long and complicated.

SOCIAL SECURITY (Continued)

8. The Social Security office will contact the student by telephone for an interview once the application forms have been received.
9. After the interviews are completed, the student will receive a report from the Social Security office which states that:

HE/SHE IS ELIGIBLE FOR BENEFITS, or

HE/SHE MUST UNDERGO FURTHER EXAMINATION TO DETERMINE ELIGIBILITY, or

HE/SHE IS NOT ELIGIBLE FOR BENEFITS.
10. It is very important that the student follow every step of the application process.
11. Ask for help from the school or adult agency if there is any reason to believe that an eligibility decision is incorrect.

POSTSCRIPT

Readers of this booklet are encouraged to obtain companions to this publication: (1) Transition From School to Work: A Guide to Community Resources which contains an extensive listing of community services, leisure and recreational programs, educational programs, and vocational programs in the San Diego area; and (2) the Spanish version of this booklet.

The authors hope that this booklet has helped students and their parents, especially those from different cultural groups, become more informed about adult programs and general adult living. The authors also hope that the specific steps included for completing many of the tasks necessary for living and working in the adult world have been helpful.

The program descriptions and tasks included are by no means all inclusive, but they can be viewed as a starting point for transition planning and adult living. Finally, the authors hope that this booklet has helped young people, their parents, and professionals know more about what to do, when to do it, how to do it, and from whom to seek assistance when planning for the transition from school to work and adulthood.
